Call for Internships: Nyaaya

Vidhi invites applications for internships for the Nyaaya vertical, at our New Delhi Office.

About Vidhi

The Vidhi Centre for Legal Policy is an independent think tank doing legal research and assisting the government in making better laws. Vidhi is committed to producing legal research of the highest standard with the aim of informing public debate and contributing to improved governance. Vidhi works with Ministries of the Government of India and State Governments, as well as other public institutions, providing research and drafting support at various stages of law-making. Vidhi also conducts and freely disseminates independent research in areas of legal reform which it believes is critical to India's future.

Vidhi is an equal opportunity employer and neither practices nor tolerates any kind of discriminatory behavior.

About Nyaaya

Nyaaya is a legal-tech initiative, working on legal content, which is actionable, accessible and user-centric. We are focused on helping people negotiate the law in their daily life and assist them in understanding their rights and duties in everyday situations. We are looking for 3 interns who feel passionately about making legal information more accessible for everyone.

Role Description

Interns would be contributing mainly to creating content for the website which would require competent research and analytical skills. Depending on your interests, time available, and the nature of work you get, you can also be involved in tech, design, and outreach for the initiative.

Eligibility Criteria

Essential Requirements:

- You must be in the 3rd year or above. (Law)
- Demonstrated strong research and analytical skills in previous professional and academic work.
- Ability to work in a cross-functional initiative.

This is a full-time position and we are looking at someone who will be based at our Delhi office. This internship is envisaged to be for three months. There are 3 positions open for interns. You will be expected to start work immediately.

Application Process

To apply, please email the following to contact@nyaaya.in with the subject line "Application for Internship at Nyaaya (3 months)"
